

Christos Tsitouras

Dr. Christos Tsitouras is a graduate of the Department of Mechanical Engineering of “The City University of New York”, holder of the following degrees: Ph.D., M.Ph., M.Eng. and B.Sc. He worked for a decade as a lecturer and research fellow in the Mechanical Engineering and Mathematics Department of the City College of New York, USA. He has been a member of various scientific institutes, while his articles have been published in prestigious scientific journals abroad. He has served in key and crucial management positions in both the public and private sector in Greece and abroad.

More specifically, Mr. Tsitouras served in the following positions as:

- Chairman and Managing Director of “HELLENIC ALUMINA INDUSTRY, S.A.”, Athens, Greece.

This was a J/V company between the Greek and Russian states responsible for the construction and operation of an Alumina Project in Viotia, Greece.

- Managing Director and General Manager of “ERGOSE S.A.” Athens, Greece.

This is the state company responsible for the reconstruction and upgrading of the railway network of Greece including the suburban network around the area of Athens.

- Chairman and Managing Director of “ATTIKO METRO S.A”, Athens, Greece.

This is the state company responsible for the development of the Metro and Tramway networks of Athens as well as the Metro network of Thessaloniki.

Recently, Dr. Tsitouras serves the position of the Governor/Director General of “HELLENIC CIVIL AVIATION AUTHORITY” (HCAA).

He is a Member of: the EASA Management Board, ICAO, EURO/NAT, ECAC, EU/DGCA and the Provisional Council of Eurocontrol