

Francisco Girio

LNEG- National Laboratory of Energy and Geology :Francisco Gírio, PhD, is Top Researcher and Head of Bioenergy & Biorefineries Department of LNEG-National Laboratory of Energy and Geology, Lisbon, Portugal. He published more than 100 papers and participated in 70 research projects, on bioenergy, biofuels and bioeconomy.

He is also President of the Board of BIOREF, a non-for-profit private entity focused on R&I activities on biorefineries.

He is member of the Steering Committee and vice-chair of the WG2 of the European Technology and Innovation Platform on Bioenergy (ETIP-Bioenergy).

He is consultant of the Portuguese Secretary State of Energy for RED III Transposition and responsible for the National Action Plan on Biomethane 2024-2040